

12-Foot Model Floats Seaport's Boat

Reproduction of historic vessel almost big enough to be seaworthy

, Joe Wojtas Published on 2/26/2008

Mystic

Louisiana purchase with France. Built in New York City, it was known as the North River Steamboat of Clermont. Its inaugural trip took it from New York City to Clermont and Albany and back. The successful trip allowed the two men to capitalize on a 20-year monopoly on Hudson River steamboat service that Livingston had obtained from the New